SIGNATURE A MISNOMER.

The Act Creating the Office of Tax Collector Henderson County.

Bureau of Labor and Printing,
Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 16, 1905.

I have just been shown an article in the Asheville Gazette by a Hendersonville correspondent signing himself "Conservative." The signature is a misnomer as the contents are, in the main, far from the truth. In the first place the correspondent undertakes to make the act creating the office of tax collector for Henderson county a personal matter between Sheriff Rhodes and myself and declares me to be the author of the law. The fact is Mr. Rhodes and myself are good friends, personally, so far as I know, and Senator Hoyer is the author of the bill referred to, which passed the general assembly two years ago. I had nothing to do with the preparation of the act, or securing the large number of petitioners, sent from Henderson county asking for its passage. Wish I could have entire credit and offer no apology for appearing before the committee two years ago in support of the measure. At that time I prepared an amendment to the Senate Bill, by the adoption of which Sheriff Rhodes was allowed the tax list for 1904, instead of making the effective a year previous. Does this indicate any personal enmity toward him?

So far as the fees of the sheriff's office are concerned there are an abundance of democrats of ability and high standing who will gladly take the position without the tax list. Sheriff Rhodes has accepted the office with the distinct understanding that he would not get the tax list and should not now plead the baby act by undertaking the repeal of the law which has never been tried and will not be effective until next June. In the senatorial primary last summer our present senator, Toms, issued a circular containing this paragraph: "It is also charged that when I go to Raleigh as your senator that I will consolidate the office of sheriff and tax collector. This is absurd and untrue. I have never thought of doing anything of the kind and I assure my friends in the strongest terms that this law shall never be changed by me unless the majority of the democrats of my county desire it." Thus it will be seen that the matter was thoroughly understood before the election and the rights of Sheriff Rhodes are not being molested. Does the Gazette's correspondent charge Senator Toms with pledging himself to stand by a piece of "pernicious legislation" in order to secure a nomination? His article so indicates. But Senator Toms will not break this pledge and all the raving radical heeled may do Mr. "Conservative" cannot affect him. And when the democrats secure the tax list you will see no return of hundreds of delinquents of insolvent at a loss to the taxpayers of from $1300 to $1500 annually. If the law is to prove hurtful to the democratic party why do republicans want it repealed so everlastingly bad?

The affair means nothing to me in a personal way and "I have no axe to grind," but I shall stand by this law until it is a fair trial and my better judgment suggests its repeal. And in this conclusion I have endorsement and hearty cooperation of a large majority of the working democrats of Henderson county.

Senator Toms returned for a short stay in Hendersonville this morning, and tells me a petition is being circulated there asking that the city authorities be permitted to submit the question of "Dispensary" or "No Dispensary" to the voters of Hendersonville. Should this request be granted the temperance forces will soon find themselves involved in another contest against whisky which otherwise would be deferred until the summer of 1906. It will be remembered that an election was held last summer under the Wain's law which resulted in a victory for the anti-liquor people. It looks rather hard to be forced into a similar fight thus far in advance of the usual time. From the stand-point of revenue and the manner of dispensing whisky the dispensary is an improvement over the saloon. But from a moral point of view it is equally as bad, and I am opposed to our beautiful town going into the whisky business. Let the people beware of putting temptation before their children in any form. Evil only can result from such a course. Send petitions against the proposition.

A Minister Drops Dead.

Columbia, S. C., Jan. 16.—Rev. Harvey Hatcher, D. D., of Atlanta, one of the best known Baptist ministers in the South, dropped dead in the lobby of the hotel at Beaufort, this State at 4 o'clock this afternoon. He had just entered the hotel from the street, and stood near the office railing, when he suddenly fell forward and remained unconscious for seven minutes, when he expired. He preached a sermon at the Baptist church this morning, and intended to preach again to-night.

In company with a party of South Carolina Baptist ministers, Dr. Hatcher had gone to Beaufort on Monday last to participate in a deer hunt on Hilton Head Island. During the three days' hunt the party had bagged nine deer. Dr. Hatcher himself killing a fine buck.

Dr. Hatcher was apparently in good health and had greatly enjoyed his outing. He was an active preacher for 50 years and had charge of the Atlanta branch of the American Baptist Publication Society. He was 72 years of age and a native of Suffolk county, Va.

He was a brother of the distinguished Rev. Wm. E. Hatcher, of Richmond, Va.

DR. A. G. CARR.

Kills Himself by Shooting in the Head.

Charlotte, N. C., Jan. 13.—Dr. Albert G. Carr, one of the prominent physicians in Durham, committed suicide this morning by shooting himself through the head at 6 o'clock. The suicide was probably caused by disponding. Dr. Carr had been in failing health for several months and during the few days had been suffering from insomnia. He was active in his practice, however, until last evening, when he retired without partaking of food, saying that he hoped he would get a good night's sleep. At 5 o'clock this morning he awoke his son Mr. William Carr, who is superintendent of the hosiery mill, and as he left for the mill bade him good bye.

It was shortly after this that the deed was accomplished.

Dr. Carr was 54 years old and was a brother of General Julian S. Carr, one of the wealthiest men in North Carolina. He was one of the best known physicians in the state, and aside from his prominence in his profession he was a very wealthy man. He carried about 50,000 insurance on his life.

Dr. Carr is survived by a wife and three sons. The sons are: Dr. John Carr, of Johns Hopkins hospital, at Baltimore; Mr. William Carr, of Durham and another son, who is in the United States civil service.

Constipation and piles are twins. They kill people inch by inch, sap life away every day. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will positively cure you. No cure no pay. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Justus Pharmacy.

Lyda-Freeman.

One of the most beautiful weddings we have ever witnessed, took place last Wednesday afternoon at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. K. L. Lyda, and the contracting parties being Miss Lona Lyda and Mr. M. W. Freeman, G. W. Lyda, Esq., performing the ceremony.

The house was beautifully decorated in evergreens and ferns. The bride's dress was a lovely costume of French Voile. She wore no ornaments. The groom wore the conventional black. The bridesmaids were Misses Bertha and Lonnie Ledbetter. The groomsmen were Mr. Bergen Lyda and Mr. Mitchell Nix.

The bride is one of the most charming and highly accomplished young ladies of this section, and her many friends wish her a long and happy life with the companion of her choice.

As soon as the congratulations were over and refreshments served, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman started on their wedding tour. The bride's traveling costume was dark blue waterproof suiting.

They are going to Swannanoa and Black Mountain, and will probably visit friends and relatives in Middle Carolina before they return. Among the wedding gifts to the bride, is a deed in her own name to a house and lot joining her mother's estate, the gift of the groom.

They will be at home to all their friends after the 20th.

May they always be as happy as they were on their wedding day is the sincere wish of
A WITNESS.

From Reedy Patch.

Among the attractions to be found in Henderson county are the beautiful scenery, nice hotels, balmy air, handsome churches, good school buildings, etc. The people of Reedy Patch are looking up. The school at this place recently gave a delightful entertainment. Miss Hyatt Hill was their excellent teacher and she did her work in a very acceptable manner. The music was a special feature of the occasion. Prof. Powell, J. M. Lyda, Esq., and Rev. John L. Case of Knoxville, Tenn., delivered excellent addresses. A large and well behaved audience greeted the speakers. A beautiful Christmas tree was erected and well filled with presents for all the children. Special remembrance of the orphan children was noticeable. None of them went away with sad hearts. Whiskey, the great enemy of mankind, seemed to be entirely absent on this occasion.
A VISITOR.

The Cemetery.

A visit to the city cemetery is all that is needed to convince any one that some improvement could be made. Briars, weeds, sprouts, Spanish needles and most anything else that is uncomely, greets the eye of all new-comers. The city of the dead should be kept in perfect order, and Hendersonville is fast coming to the front in other matters, and why not be a model in this? Can the Board of Trade work some somebody up in regard to this matter?
